January 9, 2026 | Bolingbrook, IL | National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day

Today marks National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day, a day dedicated to recognizing the service and sacrifice of law enforcement officers across the nation. The Bolingbrook Police Department proudly joins communities nationwide in expressing gratitude to the men and women who protect and serve.

Law enforcement officers work around the clock—24 hours a day, 7 days a week—often sacrificing time with their families to ensure the safety of our community. Their commitment goes beyond responding to emergencies; it includes countless hours of training, investigations, community outreach, and proactive policing to prevent crime before it happens. On this day, we encourage residents to show their support through simple acts of kindness—whether by saying “thank you,” wearing blue, or sharing messages of appreciation on social media using the hashtag #NationalLawEnforcementAppreciationDay.

Our officers are committed to serving with integrity, professionalism, and compassion. Today is an opportunity for our community to come together and recognize their dedication to keeping Bolingbrook safe. The Bolingbrook Police Department invites community members to visit our station, send notes of appreciation, or participate in local initiatives honoring law enforcement. Together, we can strengthen the bond between officers and the community they serve.
